CHICAGO WHITE SOX
MEDIA GUIDE

White Sox Board Member

OFFICERS

JERRY REINSDORF
Chairman

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Jerry Reinsdorf has been very active in the affairs of baseball. He currently is serving a third four-year term on Major League Baseball's prestigious Executive Council. Reinsdorf also served a four-year term as chairman of baseball's Ownership Committee and was a member of the board of directors of the Player Relations Committee, Inc. for seven years. He is co-chairman of the Equal Opportunity Committee and remains a member of the Ownership Committee, as well as the Legislative, Labor Policy and Strategic Planning committees. He also was a member of the American League Presidential Search Committee, which named Gene Budig in June 1994, and the Expansion Committee, which designated the last two expansion teams.

During Reinsdorf's 16 seasons as chairman of the White Sox, the club captured American League division titles twice, in 1983 and again in 1993. Since 1990, the White Sox have posted a 581-486 (.545) record, the best mark in the American League and the second-best record in the majors behind only the Atlanta Braves (615-453, .576).

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in the professional sports world in February 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls, the team has captured four World Championships for Chicago (1991-93, '96). In addition to initiating the building of new Comiskey Park, Reinsdorf spearheaded construction of two major facilities for the Bulls. The United Center, home for the Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, opened for the 1994-95 season, and the Bulls began using the Berto Center, their state-of-the-art training facility, in 1992.

In December 1987, Reinsdorf completed employment as chairman of the board of a real estate investment firm he co-founded in the early 1970s and sold to American Express. Currently, he is a partner in Bojer Financial, Ltd., a land investment company.

Reinsdorf was the 1997 recipient of the Order of Lincoln Award, and his many contributions to the community have been recognized by such organizations as the Interfaith Organizing Project, the American Academy of Achievement, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Trial Lawyers Club of Chicago, the Chicago Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame and the National Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame. In addition, he is the recipient of the Chicago Park District's 1990 Chicagoan of the Year Award, the 1992 PUSH Bridgebuilder Award, the National Italian-American Friendship Award, Northwestern University's Award of Merit and the U.S. Air Force American Spirit Award. Reinsdorf was awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor in 1993 for contributing to national identity while preserving the distinct values and heritage of our ancestors. As chairman of the Chicago White Sox, he was instrumental in initiating Chicago White Sox Charities, the arm of the baseball organization that raises funds for cancer research, children's and senior programs. Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities has conferred its Hallmark Award to Reinsdorf in recognition of his efforts.

In addition to his sports interests, Reinsdorf is an attorney, a certified public accountant, a specialist in real estate securities, a registered mortgage underwriter and a certified review appraiser. He is a former member of the board of directors of Shearson Lehman Brothers, Inc. and the Northwestern University Law School Alumni Association, and is presently a trustee of Northwestern University. He is a director of LaSalle National Bank and has served on the boards of numerous other corporations and charities.

Born in Brooklyn, New York on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have four children: David, Susan, Michael and Jonathan and six grandchildren: Bryan, Melissa, Max, Jennifer, Nathan and Joseph.

EDDIE EINHORN
Vice Chairman

Eddie Einhorn begins his seventh year as vice chairman of the White Sox, continuing his involvement with chairman Jerry Reinsdorf while also devoting time to his sports and television interests. Prior to becoming vice chairman, Einhorn was the club's president and chief operating officer for 10 years.

Einhorn is a member of Major League Baseball's Schedule Format Committee, the Professional Baseball Association Committee and was a member of the Television Committee from 1992-95. He was one of the key architects of The Baseball Network, Major League Baseball's joint broadcasting venture. In 1989, Einhorn was appointed television consultant to the United States Olympic Committee and was responsible for a 200-hour Olympic television package that debuted in 1990. He is currently television consultant for the United States Figure Skating Association and the International Skating Union, the governing bodies for figure skating throughout the world. Einhorn also serves on the board of directors of the Chicago Bulls.

Recognized as the architect of baseball's first billion dollar-plus television contract, Einhorn was instrumental in negotiating the 1990 deal with CBS-TV and ESPN. Einhorn is also the senior American League representative on the Player Development Negotiating Committee.

Prior to joining law school classmate Jerry Reinsdorf in 1981 to head the limited partnership to purchase the White Sox, Einhorn was the executive producer of the "CBS Sports Spectacular." At CBS, he was responsible for over 200 hours of programming per year and won an Emmy Award for "The Gossamer Albatross, Flight of Imagination" in 1980. Einhorn was the founder and chairman of TVS Television Network, the leading syndicator of sports programming in the 1970s, which helped give rise to the popularity of college basketball on televison.

Einhorn was born on January 3, 1936 in Paterson, New Jersey and holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Einhorn and his wife, Ann, have two children: Jennifer (1/2/72) and Jeffrey (9/26/74).

Special Thanks

The Chicago White Sox Communications Department would like to thank Daniel Evans and Nancy Nesnidal, as well as Steve Noworyta, Grace Guerrero Zwit, Dan Fabian and Sal Artiaga of baseball operations, for providing information used in the 1997 Chicago White Sox Media Guide.

HOWARD PIZER
Executive Vice President

Howard Pizer has primary responsibility for White Sox business and administrative operations, as well as the club's legal matters. The longtime business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to create the new Comiskey Park. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, the state-of-the-art facility which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons.

Pizer sets organization-wide administrative policies and procedures, established uniformity in corporate-wide computerization and was instrumental in initiating an employee relations program. He also is responsible for the overall relationship between Illinois Sportservice, the White Sox concessionaire, and Levy Restaurants in conjunction with the operation of The Stadium Club and Diamond Suites.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the boards of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities and Special Children's Charities, the fund-raising arm of Chicago Special Olympics. He is a member of the board of the Near West Side Development Corp., which is working to spur affordable housing and economic development on Chicago's near west side. Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities.

Born on October 23, 1941 in Chicago, Illinois, Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline (4/5/68) and Rachel (4/28/71).

RON SCHUELER
Senior Vice President/ General Manager, Major League Operations

Ron Schueler begins his seventh season as White Sox senior vice president of major league operations, making him the fourth ranking American League general manager in terms of tenure with one club. Since Schueler was named to his position on November 5, 1990, the Sox have gone 487-418 (.538) during six seasons. Schueler owns the second-highest winning percentage among current major-league baseball general managers who have remained with one franchise.

Schueler brings 17 years of off-field baseball experience and an additional 13 years of playing service to the White Sox. In the four years prior to joining the Sox, Schueler served as special assistant to Oakland's Sandy Alderson, where he was responsible for evaluating both professional and amateur baseball talent.

During the offseason, Schueler signed free-agent slugger Albert Belle to a five-year contract and veteran pitcher Jamie Navarro to a four-year deal. Schueler also has been responsible for acquiring veterans Jim Abbott (1995), Harold Baines (1996-present), Ellis Burks (1993), Mike Devereaux (1995), Doug Drabek (1997), Julio Franco (1994), Charlie Hough (1991-92), Bo Jackson (1991-93), Darrin Jackson (1994), Mike LaValliere (1993-95), Darren Lewis (1996-present), Dave Martinez (1995-present), Kirk McCaskill (1992-96), Tony Phillips (1996-present), Tim Raines (1991-95), Kevin Tapani (1996) and Danny Tartabull (1996).

During Schueler's first season, the White Sox drew nearly 3 million fans to brand-new Comiskey Park as the club recorded its second successive runner-up finish in the AL West with an 87-75 mark. Under new manager Gene Lamont, the Sox went 86-76 in 1992 to finish third. In 1993, the Sox captured their first division title since 1983 with a 94-68 mark before losing to Toronto in the American League Championship Series.

After recording the best winning percentage in the AL Central in 1994 (67-46, .593), the Sox dropped to 68-76 in 1995, but finished 57-56 after Schueler named Terry Bevington manager on June 2. The 1996 Sox improved to 85-77 and led the AL Wild Card race for much of the season before finally being eliminated on the next-to-last day of the season. Last season's club also established franchise records for at-bats, home runs and slugging percentage, while the club's pitching staff ranked second in the AL.

Schueler compiled a 40-48 record over eight major-league seasons with Atlanta (1972-73), Philadelphia (1974-76), Minnesota (1977) and the White Sox (1978-79). The 6-4 right-hander originally was selected by Atlanta in the third round (secondary phase) of the January 1967 free agent draft.

His playing career ended in June 1979 when he was hired by Sox manager Don Kessinger as the club's pitching coach. Schueler served as the team's pitching coach until 1981 before joining Oakland in the same capacity from 1982-84. He held the same duties for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986 before joining the A's front office, where he received a World Series ring with Oakland in 1989.

Schueler was born on April 18, 1948 in Hays, Kansas. A graduate of Hays High School, he attended Fort Hays State College prior to being drafted. Schueler has two children: Kacey (7/21/73) and Carey (4/25/75).

ROB GALLAS
Senior Vice President, Marketing & Broadcasting

Rob Gallas joined the White Sox in September 1989 at a pivotal point in the club's 80-year history. He was given the dual challenge of closing old Comiskey Park while generating excitement for the club's new home across the street. Over the past eight seasons, Gallas and the Sox marketing department have consistently focused on fan-oriented programs that guarantee a fun baseball experience throughout the ballpark.

In 1997, White Sox marketing efforts will again focus on the fan, especially kids, as the club unveils several unique enhancements to Comiskey Park that will enrich the ballpark experience for Sox fans.

From the nostalgic "Turn Back the Clock" promotion and historic montage display of the 80-year Comiskey Park history during the final 1990 season, to creating a Hall of Fame and offering tributes to women in baseball and members of the former Negro Leagues, Sox marketing efforts have focused on reminding old and new fans of the treasures of baseball. In 1996, those efforts included Wacky Weeknights with events such as "Romance Night," "Used Car Night" and "Dog Day of Summer."

The White Sox logo and uniforms, unveiled at the end of the 1990 season, have moved the Sox to the top of Major League Baseball in merchandise sales in each of the last six years. At the same time, a strong effort is being made to keep fans in touch with players through events like SoxFest and White Sox Day at Taste of Chicago, while "giving back" to the Chicago metropolitan area through Chicago White Sox Charities and the Sox community relations efforts. In 1996, the White Sox debuted an award-winning internet site (www.chisox.com), providing the club's fans with a cutting-edge way to follow the Sox through cyberspace.

Since Gallas joined the White Sox, the club has broken all-time attendance records with six of the franchise's best eight season marks coming since 1990. In 1996, the Sox drew 1,676,416 fans to Comiskey Park, the eighth-highest attendance total in franchise history. On June 29, 1996, the Sox set a regular-season record by attracting 43,601 fans to new Comiskey Park for their game against the Cleveland Indians. In recognition of the marketing department's effort, Gallas was one of only three sports executives selected in 1992 by Advertising Age magazine for its first "Marketing 100" list, which honored programs that "stand for the very best in brand building."

Gallas began his career as a news and sportswriter with newspapers in the Midwest, including a stint from 1976 to 1983 as the White Sox beat writer for the Chicago suburban Daily Herald newspaper chain. He received the Jacob Scher award for investigative reporting in 1975 and in 1980 captured UPI's Illinois Newspapers Best Sportswriting Award. Before joining the White Sox, he held the position of group manager of marketing communications and services for a division of Baxter Healthcare Corporation.

Gallas was born in Chicago, Illinois on January 4, 1951. A 1973 graduate of the University of Evansville (Indiana), Gallas and his wife, Sharon, have two children: Christopher (3/8/71), who is coordinator of media relations for NASCAR, and Jennifer (2/4/74). The Gallas family resides in Palatine, Illinois.

JACK GOULD
Senior Vice President, Baseball

Jack Gould joined the White Sox as an investor in 1975 during Bill Veeck's second tenure with the club. He assumed his current role as senior vice president of baseball in 1981 with the Reinsdorf-Einhorn ownership group. Gould is one of three original members of the Sox board of directors remaining on the board.

Under Gould's direction, the White Sox began computerizing the gathering of statistical data during the 1981 season, bringing the club into the forefront of the industry by making baseball decisions based on computer-generated data. He also has overseen the research involved in preparing for potential arbitration cases.

As a bomber pilot for the U.S. Army Air Force during World War II, Gould flew on 35 combat missions in Europe and received several decorations, including the distinguished Flying Cross. Lt. Col. and actor Jimmy Stewart was second in command of Gould's wing. After leaving the military, Gould ran his own mortgage banking firm for 25 years. He is an advocate of youth baseball and served in various administrative capacities for Colt League Baseball in the northern suburbs of Chicago, including coaching duties.

Gould was born in Chicago, Illinois and is a graduate of Chicago's Von Steuben High School and the University of Illinois, where he received a bachelor's degree in accounting. He and his wife, Nancy, have one child: Larry (7/24/57).

TIM BUZARD
Vice President, Finance

As vice president of finance for the White Sox, Tim Buzard is directly responsible for the club's accounting, ticket office, human resources and data processing departments. After assuming this position in 1985, he initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Buzard spent much of the 1993 season as a member of Major League Baseball's Chief Financial Officers' Committee studying revenue sharing. He is currently involved in the implementation of baseball's new revenue-sharing agreement. Buzard has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign and a new human resources department with the White Sox.

Prior to his promotion to vice president of finance, Buzard served as controller for five years. Upon his arrival in 1981, his top priority was developing a detailed budget and long-term accounting plan. He initiated the automation of the accounting department and assisted in an organization-wide computerization project.

Buzard holds an accounting degree from the University of Illinois and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox.

Buzard was born on September 13, 1955 in Evanston, Illinois. A 1978 graduate of the University of Illinois, Buzard and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline (11/11/84) and Kevin (3/21/89). The Buzard family resides in Highland Park, Illinois.

TERRY SAVARISE
Vice President, Stadium Operations

As vice president of stadium operations, Terry Savarise is directly responsible for all aspects of the operation of the ballpark, including the over 2,000 employees that staff Comiskey Park on game days. He also was responsible for the planning and construction of new Comiskey Park. Savarise handled the layout and design of all aspects of the ballpark, including the state-of-the-art features in the Diamond Suites, The Stadium Club, press box and clubhouses.

Entering his 16th season with the White Sox, Savarise also serves as senior vice president of operations for the United Center, the arena that serves as the home of the Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks. Savarise handled all design and construction aspects of the state-of-the-art multipurpose arena. He also coordinated the installation and operation of the 1996 Democratic National Convention at the United Center.

Savarise is spearheading the design and construction of the new White Sox spring training site in Tucson, Ariz., which is set to open in spring 1998. He worked closely on the design and construction of Ed Smith Stadium and Sports Complex, which served as the club's spring training and minor-league headquarters from 1989-97. In addition, he provided assistance in the development of the new L.P. Frans Stadium, home of the White Sox Class A affiliate in Hickory, North Carolina.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Savarise served an internship with the Cleveland Cavaliers of the National Basketball Association in their All-Star Game season of 1980-81. He is an active member of the Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers and serves on the board of directors of the Stadium Managers' Association.

Savarise was born on November 20, 1959 and was raised in Ashtabula, Ohio. He is a 1981 graduate of Ohio University with bachelor's degrees in accounting and business law, followed by a master's degree in sports administration later that year. Savarise and his wife, Tara, have two children: Katie (9/10/88) and Jonathan (7/8/93).

LARRY MONROE
Vice President, Free Agent & Major League Scouting

Larry Monroe enters his third season as the club's vice president of free agent and major league scouting after serving as Sox vice president of scouting and minor league operations since 1990. Monroe was named to his present position on October 10, 1994.

A former right-handed pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, Monroe brings 22 years of experience in the White Sox organization as a player, scout, minor-league instructor and coach. He served as both a special assistant to the general manager and major-league scout before taking over vice president duties.

Monroe enhances the club's scouting efforts during the season and his experience allows him to assist Ron Schueler, senior vice president of major league operations, in evaluating potential player moves.

A graduate of Forest View High School in Arlington Heights, Illinois, Monroe received all-conference baseball honors three times and all-area baseball honors twice. He was the White Sox No. 1 selection in the June 1974 free agent draft and made his major-league debut with the White Sox on August 23, 1976 in Detroit, where he pitched two scoreless, hitless innings.

Monroe was born on June 20, 1956 in Detroit, Michigan. He has three children: Taylor (10/14/83), Allison (3/13/85) and Grant (9/29/88).

The Bullpen Sports Bar

The Bullpen Sports Bar at Comiskey Park, located under the right-field bleachers, was opened to fans on July 18, 1996. The 10,200-square-foot bar is decorated with various photos and baseball memorabilia. The bar's east wall gives patrons a view of the opposition's bullpen through laminated glass, while the north wall of the bar offers a view of the park through the right field fence. The bar opens with the ballpark's gates and closes one and one-half hours after the conclusion of the game.

KEN WILLIAMS
Vice President, Player Development

Ken Williams was named White Sox vice president of player development on February 6, 1997 after initially joining the organization when his playing career ended in 1992. Williams is beginning his 12th season with the White Sox in a variety of capacities, including player, scout and special assistant to the chairman.

Williams has served as the director of minor league operations/special assistant to the chairman since November 1995. He joined the club in November 1992 as a scout, specializing in the inner cities and was named special assistant to White Sox chairman Jerry Reinsdorf in 1994. As special assistant to the chairman, Williams was involved in the overall operation of the entire White Sox organization.

As director of minor league operations, Williams initiated the club's involvement in the Far East and Mexico while overseeing the operations of the Sox player development system.

A former major-league outfielder with the White Sox (1986-88), Detroit (1989-90), Toronto (1990-91) and Montreal (1991), Williams appeared in 451 career games. His best season came as a rookie in 1987, when he hit .281 with 11 home runs and 50 RBI for the White Sox. Williams originally was selected by the Sox in the third round of the June 1982 free agent draft.

Born on April 6, 1964 in Berkeley, Calif., Williams attended Stanford University, where he played baseball and football. Terry Bevington

TERRY BEVINGTON 18

Given Name: Terry Paul Bevington
Position: Manager
Batted: Right Threw: Right
Height: 6-2 Weight: 205
Opening Day Age: 40
Born: July 27, 1956, Akron, Ohio
Resides: Chicago, Ill.
First Pro Contract: New York Yankees, 1974.
Sox Acquisition: Hired as minor league manager, October 10, 1987.

Major League Managerial/Coaching Career: Begins his second full season as White Sox manager ... guided the Sox to an 85-77 (.525) record and a second-place finish behind American League Central Division winner Cleveland in 1996 ... Chicago led the AL Wild Card race for 52 days following the All-Star Break before being eliminated from playoff contention on the next-to-last day of the season ... the Sox posted the AL's third-biggest improvement in winning percentage in 1996, his first full season as manager ... the Sox set club records for home runs (195) and slugging percentage (.447) and their average of 5.5 runs per game ranked second in franchise history ... agreed to a two-year contract on 10/12/96 ... was ejected twice in 1996 (5/9 vs. Baltimore by Jim Evans and 8/27 vs. Milwaukee by Larry Barnett) ... is the youngest manager in the AL at age 40 ... became the franchise's 35th manager on 6/2/95 ... took over when the White Sox were 11-20 and led the club to a 57-56 mark over the remainder of the season ... was the 16th White Sox manager to take over during the season and just the third to post a winning record in that campaign (omitting interim managers) ... Fielder Jones (67-47 in 1904) and Ted Lyons (64-60 in 1946) are the only others to accomplish the feat ... the club won eight straight from 8/30-9/6, the longest winning streak by a Sox team since 1991 ... is the second-youngest current major-league manager (behind Philadelphia's Terry Francona) but only the 12th-youngest in White Sox history ... is the second manager in franchise history with no major-league playing experience ... the first was Clarence "Pants" Rowland, who led the White Sox to their last World Series Championship in 1917 ... was the first Sox coach since Don Gutteridge to be promoted to manager ... Gutteridge replaced Al Lopez in 1969 ... was ejected four times in 1995 (6/17 at California by John Shulock; 6/21 vs. Seattle by Tim McClelland; 7/23 vs. Milwaukee by Larry Young; and 8/14 vs. California by Ken Kaiser) ... was suspended for four games by AL President Gene Budig as a result of his 7/23 ejection ... served the suspension from 8/1-4 ... started 1995 as the club's third base coach, his sixth season in that capacity and seventh overall with the White Sox ... was ejected three times in his career as a coach (4/29/89 at New York; 10/4/91 at Seattle; and 9/6/92 at Kansas City) ... has a .546 (753-625) combined career winning percentage in the major and minor leagues, second among AL managers behind Baltimore's Davey Johnson (.573, 1,040-775).

Minor League Managerial/Coaching Career: Began his minor-league managerial career in 1981 at age 24 ... managed 1,103 minor-league games ... of the 28 current major-league managers, only four managed more contests in the minors (Montreal's Felipe Alou, 1,635; Anaheim's Terry Collins, 1,560; Florida's Jim Leyland, 1,402; and the Chicago Cubs' Jim Riggleman, 1,112) ... won division titles in five of his eight seasons as a minor-league manager and compiled a 611-492 (.554) career mark ...

Best Records Since 1990

Since 1990, the White Sox have gone 581-486 (.545), the best record in the American League and the second-best mark in the major leagues this decade. Only Atlanta (615-453, .576) has a better overall record in the 1990s. The Sox have the second-best home mark (306-224, .577) behind the Braves since 1990 and are one of just three teams to have a winning record on the road as the White Sox top the AL in each category. Baseball's top five teams overall, at home and on the road since 1990:

Sox Switch-Hit Home Runs

Tim Raines became just the second player in club history to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game when he connected twice against the New York Yankees on August 31, 1993 at New York. Raines homered in the fifth inning off left-hander Sterling Hitchcock and in the ninth off right-hander Rich Monteleone. Outfielder Ken Henderson was the first player in Sox history to homer from both sides of the plate on August 29, 1975 at Baltimore. Henderson connected off left-hander Ross Grimsley and right-hander Wayne Garland.

Luis Aparicio And Ozzie Guillen

Ozzie Guillen has appeared in 1,585 games at shortstop for the White Sox, 79 more than Luis Aparicio, who played for Chicago from 1956-62 and again from 1968-70. Guillen's career games played total (1,601) is fourth among all native Venezuelans, while Aparicio tops the list at 2,599. How Aparicio and Guillen compare during their White Sox careers (note: Luke Appling holds practically every record by a Sox shortstop):

100 Walks And 100 Runs Scored At Age 37

Tony Phillips scored 119 runs and drew 125 walks in 1996 to become just the fourth player in major-league history to record 100 in each category at age 37 or older (San Diego's Rickey Henderson, 37, also reached those levels in 1996). Prior to 1996, no player had accomplished the feat since Charlie Gehringer collected 108 runs and 101 walks for Detroit in 1940 at age 37. Babe Ruth, who scored 120 runs and walked 130 times for the 1932 New York Yankees, is the fourth player. Players who have recorded at least 100 walks and 100 runs scored at age 37 or older:

Frank Thomas Over Six Seasons

Frank Thomas is the only player in major-league history to bat .300 or better with at least 20 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 walks and 100 runs scored in six consecutive seasons. In 1995, he became the first player in history to accomplish that feat over five straight years, and in 1994 he joined Lou Gehrig (1929-32, 34-37) and Ted Williams (1946-49) as the only players to reach those totals four consecutive seasons (Note: Williams accomplished the feat from 1941-42 and 1946-49, missing 1943-45 due to World War II). Over the last six seasons, Thomas has averaged .327 with 36 home runs, 116 RBI, 106 runs scored and 121 walks despite playing in the strike-shortened seasons of 1994 (113 games) and 1995 (145 games) and missing 19 games in 1996 with a stress fracture in his left foot. Frank Thomas Facts

1996 Accomplishments

- Hit his 200th career home run on 6/9 at Baltimore off Jimmy Haynes, joining Jose Canseco and Mark McGwire as the only three active players to hit 200 within six years of their major-league debuts.
- Ranked in the Top 10 in seven major offensive categories despite missing 19 games due to injury (did not play in 21 overall).
- Drove in 134 runs in 141 games, a pace to drive in 154 over a 162-game schedule ... that total would have been the most since Ted Williams and Vern Stephens each drove in 159 in 1949... in addition to being a career high, his 134 RBI were just four short of Zeke Bonura's club record of 138 set in 1936.
- Was named the American League Player of the Month for April and September, the sixth and seventh times in his career he has received the honor ... batted .379 (36-95) with nine home runs and 25 RBI in April ... homer and RBI totals set a club record for the month ... hit .341 (30-88) with a league-leading 11 home runs and 24 RBI in September ... homer and RBI totals were career highs for the month ... his season-opening, 15-game hitting streak (.393, 24-61) was the best by a Sox player to begin a season since at least 1952 (streaks prior to that season are not available).
- Hit the first home run in the major leagues in 1996 (on the first pitch he saw), a two-run, first-inning shot off Seattle's Randy Johnson on 3/31 at The Kingdome ... it was his second career Opening Day homer.
- Hit three solo home runs off Tim Wakefield on 9/15 at Boston to become the first Sox player to hit three in a game since Tim Raines on 4/18/94 at Boston ... it was the 13th multihomer game of his career and first three-homer effort ... the first home run was the franchise-record 215th of his career, surpassing Carlton Fisk's previous mark of 214.
- His streak of 345 consecutive games played (the second-longest among active players behind Cal Ripken) ended when he was placed on the 15-day disabled list for the first time in his career on 7/11 with a stress fracture in his left foot ... Thomas led the league with 85 RBI in 87 games when disabled.
- Hit in 118 of 141 games (83.7 percent) and reached base safely in 137 of 141 (97.2 percent) ... reached base 298 times on the season, an average of 2.1 per game ... over his career, has hit in 685 of 930 games (73.7 percent) while reaching base in 91.8 percent of his contests (854 of 930).
- Became the 22nd player in White Sox history to record 1,000 hits with a ninth-inning single off Dave Stevens on 7/1 vs. Minnesota ... his 1,000th hit came in his 870th career game ... of his first 1,000 hits, Thomas posted 584 singles, 203 doubles, eight triples and 205 homers.
- Batted at least .341 and drove in at least 24 runs in each of his five full months ... missed 19 games in July with a stress fracture in his left foot.
- Walked a career-high five times on 6/5 at Boston to tie Tony Muser's club record (the AL record is six by Jimmie Foxx) ... added a single in the ninth inning to reach base six times.
- Drove in a career-high six runs on 5/15 at Milwaukee and scored a career-high four runs on 9/15 at Boston.
- Matched his career high by driving in at least one run in eight straight games from 5/12-21.
- Collected at least 24 RBI in each of his five full months with a high of 29 in May ... Thomas has played 34 full months in his career, driving in 20 or more runs 22 times and 25 or more nine times.
- Collected his 50th RBI on 5/26 vs. Milwaukee, the fastest he has ever reached that mark ... drove in his 100th run on 8/18 at Milwaukee in the team's 125th game, also the fastest he has ever reached the century mark.
- Combined to hit .354 (58-164) with nine home runs, 35 RBI, 37 runs scored and 44 walks in 46 games vs. the four AL playoff teams — Baltimore, Cleveland, New York and Texas.
- Batted above .300 against every AL opponent but the Yankees (.286).
- His home run on 5/25 vs. Milwaukee was his 100th at new Comiskey Park and his 400th career extra-base hit.
- Reached base safely eight straight times (8/9-11).

All-Star Facts

- Was selected to make his fourth consecutive All-Star Game appearance and his third straight start at first base for the American League on 7/9 at Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia ... due to a stress fracture in his left foot was forced to miss the contest and was unable to defend his Home Run Derby crown ... Thomas became the first Sox player to earn four straight trips to the All-Star Game since Luis Aparicio (1958-62) and would have been the first Sox to start three straight mid-summer classics since Dick Allen in 1972-74.

- Was 10-25 (.400) with one home run and five RBI vs. pitchers named to the 1996 American League All-Star Team.

- Is 4-5 (.800) with a home run, three RBI, two runs scored and one walk in All-Star competition.

- Became the first White Sox player to homer in an All-Star Game when he connected on a 418-foot shot off Cincinnati's John Smiley at The Ballpark in Arlington in 1995 ... Thomas donated his bat to the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, where it is on display.

- Won the 1995 Home Run Derby, defeating Cleveland's Albert Belle in the finals ... his 15 home runs in the competition traveled a combined 6,488 feet, an average of nearly 433 feet per homer ... hit seven of the eight longest home runs, including a 470-foot shot to center field.

- His 519-foot home run was the longest drive of the 1994 Home Run Derby competition at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh.

Historical Accomplishments

◆Drew his 100th walk of the season on 9/10 at Baltimore to join Roy Thomas (Philadelphia-NL, 1899-1904) as the only players in major-league history to record at least 100 walks in each of their first six full seasons ... Roy Thomas walked 93 times in his seventh season (1905).

◆Drove in his 100th run of the season on 8/18 at Milwaukee to become just the fourth player in major-league history to record 100 RBI in each of his first six full seasons ... Al Simmons (11, 1924-34), Joe DiMaggio (7, 1936-42) and Hal Trosky (6, 1934-39) are the others.

◆Became the first player in history to collect 100 walks and 100 RBI six consecutive years ... Lou Gehrig posted those numbers five straight years from 1934-38, while Gehrig (1929-32), Babe Ruth (1930-33), Ted Williams (1948-51) and Ralph Kiner (1948-51) each accomplished the feat four straight seasons ... Williams actually drew 100 walks and drove in 100 runs in six consecutive seasons (1941-42, 46-49) but did not play from 1943-45 due to service in the military during World War II.

HISTORY

SIGNIFICANT DATES

November 20, 1893 ..... At a meeting held in the Grand Hotel Indianapolis, the Western League is formally organized. Charles Comiskey nominates Ban Johnson for president of the league. The Sioux City franchise is awarded to a local businessman named H. H. Drale. A year later Comiskey's contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs expires. At the behest of Ban Johnson, Charles Comiskey purchases the Sioux City team and moves it to St. Paul.

October 11, 1899 ..... The American League is christened in Chicago, amid rumors that the St. Paul club will transfer to the south side.

March 21, 1900 ..... An agreement is signed which lands the St. Paul Saints in Chicago.

April 2, 1900 ..... Playing as the Chicago team for the first time, the White Stockings defeat the University of Illinois, 10-9, in Champaign. Roy Patterson is the victor.

April 21, 1900 ..... The Chicago White Sox play their first game in a small wooden ballpark located at 39th and Princeton. The Sox lose to Milwaukee, 5-4.

April 22, 1900 ..... The Sox defeat the Brewers, 5-3, behind Roger Denzer for the club's first victory.

September 12, 1900 ..... The White Sox clinch the 1900 pennant by defeating the Cleveland Blues, 12-4, in Chicago.

January 28, 1901 ..... Meeting in closed door sessions in Chicago, the American League drafts a 140-game schedule and declares itself to be a second Major League.

April 24, 1901 ..... The first "official" American League game is played in Chicago with Roy Patterson defeating Cleveland, 8-2.

September 21, 1901 ..... Even though they lose in Philadelphia, the White Sox capture their second consecutive American League pennant. For the season they draw 354,350 fans to the tiny South Side grounds, nearly 150,000 more than their crosstown rivals. Chicago plays a team of AL All-Stars led by Nap Lajoie in the postseason "All-American Series." The Sox split the games.

June 9, 1903 ..... The White Sox are incorporated under Illinois law with $5,000 capital.

October 2, 1904 ..... Doc White's streak of 45 consecutive scoreless innings is snapped by the New York Highlanders in Chicago.

October 14, 1906 ..... The Sox claim the only all-Chicago World Series, defeating the Cubs, 8-3, in the finale to win four of the six meetings.

October 5, 1908 ..... Ed Walsh wins his 40th game of the season, downing Detroit, 6-1. His win total remains a Chicago single-season record.

January 19, 1909 ..... Charles Comiskey purchases a tract of land near the corner of 35th and Shields from Roxanna Bowen, a descendant of former Chicago Mayor John Wentworth. Later that year, architect Zachary Taylor Davis is commissioned to design a spacious ballpark for the White Sox on the site.

March 17, 1910 ..... The cornerstone of Comiskey Park is laid on St. Patrick's Day.

June 27, 1910 ..... The Sox play for the last time at the 39th St. Grounds, losing to Cleveland, 7-2.

July 1, 1910 ..... Comiskey Park opens to a packed house but the Sox lose to St. Louis, 2-0.

August 11, 1912 ..... Hall-of-Fame catcher Ray Schalk makes his debut, collecting one single in three at-bats against Philadelphia.

November 13, 1913 ..... The White Sox and New York Giants begin a celebrated worldwide tour which is highlighted by a special exhibition game before King George of England.

June 1, 1914 ..... Red Faber begins his 20-year career with the White Sox by losing, 2-1, in a 13-inning decision to the Tigers.

White Sox Parks

New Comiskey Park: The new Comiskey Park opened on April 18, 1991, three years after the Illinois General Assembly passed legislation to build the park directly across the street from old Comiskey Park. A ground-breaking ceremony was held on May 7, 1989, with Mayor Richard M. Daley and Governor James Thompson in attendance. The new park features an exploding scoreboard, an old-time facade complete with arches and over 40,000 unobstructed-view seats. New Comiskey Park attracted a club-record 2,934,154 fans in its first year.

Old Comiskey Park: After nine years in the South Side Grounds, Charles Comiskey started construction on his new "Baseball Palace of the World" at the corner of 35th Street and Shields Avenue. White Sox Park opened on July 1, 1910, but soon became known as Comiskey Park. The new park was designed by architect Zachary Taylor Davis with help from Comiskey and pitcher Ed Walsh. Comiskey Park featured spacious dimensions (362 feet down each line and 420 feet to straight-away center field). Before the 1927 season, the park was enclosed by a double-decked outfield grandstand. On August 14, 1939, the first night game in Chicago was played at Comiskey Park, with the Sox defeating the St. Louis Browns, 5-2. The first large center field scoreboard was built in 1950 and lasted until replaced by Bill Veeck's exploding version in 1960. In 1982, a new scoreboard, complete with color video board, was constructed along with new Golden Box seats, dugouts and a level of luxury sky suites. The White Sox played their final campaign at old Comiskey Park in 1990. The festive final weekend of the old stadium was capped by a 2-1 Sox victory over the Seattle Mariners in the final game on September 30, 1990.

39th Street Grounds: The first home of the Chicago White Sox was located at 39th Street and Princeton, four blocks south of the present Comiskey Park. The 39th Street Grounds served as the playing field of the Chicago Wanderers cricket team during the 1893 World's Fair. Charles Comiskey built a wooden grandstand on the site in 1900. The capacity of the tiny grandstand never exceeded 7,500. It served as the home of the White Sox until June 27, 1910 when the club vacated the park for Comiskey Park at 35th Street and Shields. The grounds were leased to John Schorling, a South Side saloon keeper who owned the American Giants Negro League team. The park served as the home of Chicago's Negro League teams until the park was demolished in the late 1940s to make way for a public housing project.

White Sox Turnaround

The White Sox 1990 record of 94-68 (after finishing 69-92 in 1989) was the largest one-year turnabout in club history, eclipsing the 1970-71 revival when the Sox improved from 56-106 to 79-83.

Batting .300 With 25 Home Runs

Frank Thomas is just the second player in White Sox history to bat over .300 and hit 25-plus home runs multiple times in his career. Thomas has accomplished the feat five times: in 1991 (.318, 32) and in four consecutive seasons from 1993-96. Dick Allen achieved those levels twice (1972 and 1974). Harold Baines (1984) and Zeke Bonura (1934) each accomplished it once in their careers.

Triple Plays

The last triple play turned by the White Sox came on June 6, 1996 at Boston's Fenway Park. With Joe Magrane pitching and the Red Sox ahead, 2-0, Mo Vaughn and Jose Canseco both walked. Tim Naehring grounded to White Sox third baseman Robin Ventura, who stepped on third base to force out Vaughn. Ventura threw to second base where Ray Durham forced out Canseco, and Durham's relay throw to first baseman Frank Thomas beat out Naehring.

MEDIA SERVICES

Admission: Enter Comiskey Park at Gate 4 (Administrative Offices). Television crews that park in the back of the ballpark enter through the loading dock. A Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or Chicago White Sox credential is necessary for admittance. Gate 4 and the clubhouses will be opened to the media 3 1/2 hours prior to game time.

Broadcast Booths: Take the elevator to Level 2, proceed to the Press Box, and take the stairs to the broadcast booths. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Reserved), Booth 2 (Home TV), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Home Radio), Booth 5 (Visiting Radio), Booth 6 (Hispanic Radio), Booth 7 (Reserved).

Clubhouses: Credentials must indicate clubhouse access. Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the White Sox clubhouse (third base side) is to the left and the visitors' clubhouse (first base side) is to the right. The White Sox clubhouse will be closed to the media 45 minutes prior to the game and between games of a doubleheader. Following the game, the White Sox clubhouse will be opened to the media no later than 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room, and players' lounge will be closed to the media at all times.

Credentials: Proper credentials must be displayed at all times. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies that have contacted the Communications Department at least 24 hours in advance. Media Will Call is located at Gate 4, Window 10, which opens two hours prior to game time.

Dark Rooms: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the dark rooms are to the right beyond the entrance to the Umpires' Clubhouse.

Elevators: Two elevators are located to the right after entrance at Gate 4. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the elevators. Take either elevator to Level 2 for the Press Box, Level 3 for the Bards Room (dining room), or Level 5 for the Upper Photo Boxes (Sections 524 and 540).

Field: Credentials must indicate field access. The field and dugouts must be cleared following pre-game batting practice and infield drills. Postgame live shots can be done from the warning track areas immediately in front of the first and third base photo boxes. However, postgame interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.

Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in Lots C and G, as designated on the parking pass.

Postgame Interview Room: Approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game, manager Terry Bevington and selected players (when possible) will be available in the postgame interview room (located across from the White Sox clubhouse at the end of the Communications Department offices). The interviews will be broadcast into the press box and a multbox will be available for TV/radio usage.

Press Box: Take the elevator to Level 2. The Press Box contains 120 seats, a work room, telephones for credit card calls and a dining area. No food or drink may be taken from the Press Box.

Television Minicam Crews: WBBM (2), WMAQ (5), WLS (7), WGN (9), WFLD (32), ChicagoLand Television and SportsChannel will be allowed to park two vehicles each at the rear of the ballpark near the Players' Lot (corner of 35th Street and Wentworth Avenue). Crews parking in this area enter the stadium with their equipment via the loading dock. Access to the field is via the first and third base photo boxes off the service tunnel. Access to the photo boxes on the upper concourse is via the freight elevator in the left field corner of the stadium.

Pre-game interviews must be done on the field. No game action can be shown during a live shot. Use of lights in the stadium during the game is prohibited. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the clubhouses. Following the game, interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the final out.
